Anthony BAJADA

Dear Tony,

I feel the same way about you as I do Peter, Arthur, Nat, & Big. That feeling is love. You're a great friend & I do love you dearly. You have taken a piece out of my heart. I'm very glad we had a chance to become good friends. I hope our friendship lasts a long time. You will always be in my memory even when I make it into "Star Don".

I hope you'll be collecting pictures of me too. I can't describe my feelings towards you because it's a great feeling. You are a true friend. In my treasure box you'll go with my other special things. I'm going to miss you a whole lot. Please keep in touch.

Love,

Danny

Dear Tony,

We've been friends for a long time, & I hope you'll always stay the same person you are now 'cause it's great. I'll miss you're not being in S.J. next year but somehow I guess it'll be alright. (Even in the History Resource Center) stay cool & don't ever forget your friends at S.J.

Your friend,
Danny

Tony,
I'm not writing on my picture because if you can't remember who Bob Amabile is (or looks like) it's just too bad.
You have made quite a dent in my life, and brought me to realize that I must know other people before I can judge them. Well, Tony, I did just that, I took the chance to know you and I cannot describe what I found in just plain words. I think you are the ~~best~~ best person I could ever invest my friendship in.
My regrets are that I didn't do it sooner.
Please don't let our friendship escape.
Keep in touch,
Bob.

Dear Tony,

Football

The Bluejays varsity football team went into the record books this past year when it captured not only the division and county titles, but finally the state Parochial B championship. Its eight wins against only one loss tied the best season in Saint Joe's history. The march to the top was a steady climb as captain Mitch Gerrity and co-captain Mike Tanner provided the impetus and set the pace toward victory. Both offensive and defensive squads combined for a winning season as the veteran seniors proved to be an invaluable group: Jimmy Tighe, Ray Schmitt, Larry Scalzo, Richie Redden, Bob Pilgrim, Tony Novembre, Robin Marks, Tony Kazmierski, Pablo Juri and Frank Finnerty.

This year's Varsity Cheerleading Squad was composed of two seniors and seven juniors. The seniors are captain Adrienne Pillepich and co-captain Barbara Castillo. The juniors are: Cathy Bonaccorsi, Regina Testa, Estelle Altamura, Patty Seglio, Kathy Cobb, Barbara Lisa and Cindy LoPresti.

Even though they've been practicing since last April, they have shared many good times. The girls feel this is mostly because of the football team's championship season and also because the girl's basketball team had a very successful season. The Varsity Cheerleading squad immensely enjoyed cheering along with their Junior Varsity squad at basketball and football games.

Dear Tony,
 I'm very sorry
 about what happened and I can only say; don't let it stop you. For
 as an outsider but not me, because I lost my Father at 13 but it didn't mess me up (THANK GOD) so I hope you can do the same, because if you can you have made the hard, but necessary transformation from a boy to a MAN if you do this if you need such youth
 experience

Student Council

Increased involvement and greater school spirit throughout the Student Body have been just a few of the goals that were attained by this year's Student Council. Many of the entertaining activities that were held during the school year were sponsored by this organization. Under the leadership of President Kevin McCaffrey and assisted by Vice-Presidents Patti Harris and Joe Bonito, Secretary Jeanne Maloney, and Treasurer Barry Marcelle, its projects were numerous and diversified — dances, socials, film festivals, pep rallies, and coffee houses. Through the guidance of Mr. Jim Dondero and complemented by the participation of the school body, the Student Council was a very successful group in its endeavors.

good times — Good Luck

Language Clubs

The French Club has played a very active role this past year. Along with several field trips to French movies, restaurants and exhibits, they have also had many successful fund raising activities which financed a February trip to the Mardi Gras celebration in Quebec. The officers are President Annette DePalma, Vice-President Caridad Cabera, Secretary Ileana Gonzalez, Treasurer Gloria Ron Fornes with assistance from Mrs. Annette Falkowski.

Under the direction of Mrs. Ferrer, the Spanish Club has brought the Spanish and Latin American way of life to the students of St. Joseph's. By taking frequent trips to museums and restaurants in New York, and by having the Spanish singing group "La Tuna" perform in the school, the "Los Conquistadores" have been able to absorb much of the Spanish culture. This year, as in the past, the Spanish club has offered the "Cena de Navidad" to the faculty. This Christmas feast, complete with all the traditional holiday food and drink, was a huge success.

Future Business Leaders of America

After attending a leadership conference in Woodbridge earlier in the year, the FBLA returned with many innovative ideas for club activities. Led by President Mike Furlong, and with moderator Mrs. Cathy Dondero, the group raised money through a candy sale to participate in the state convention in March. Another project that was very successful was the March of Dimes drive in April.

Although only a year old, the Theatre-Arts Club has played a very important role. It has brought an atmosphere of art, music, ballet, and the Broadway stage to many students, moderated by Miss Joan Black and Mr. Richard Hamilton.

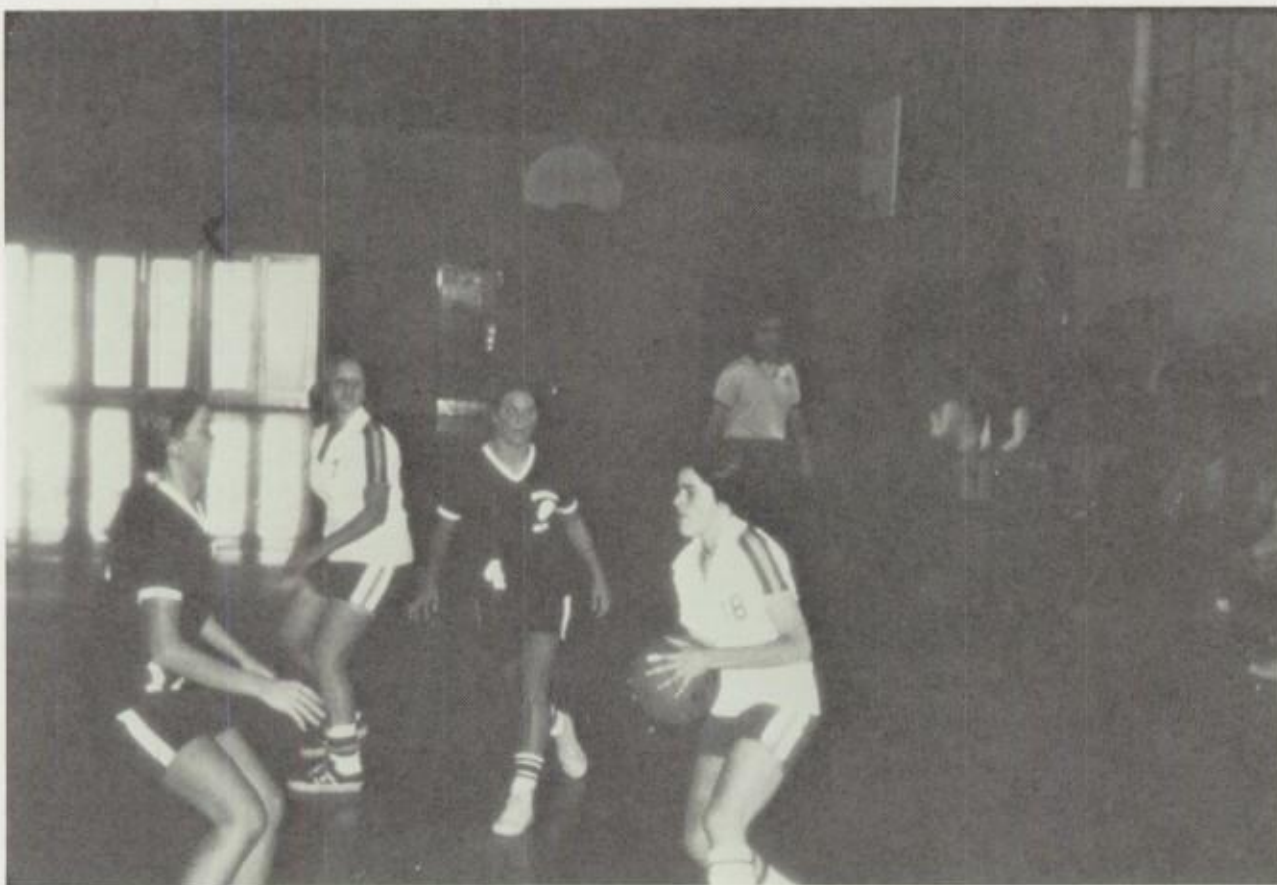

During the course of the year they have gone to places such as The Magic Show, Ibsen's A Doll's House, the Joffrey Ballet, as well as a variety of museums and concerts. The discount tickets and opportunities for field trips are often open to non-members. All the students take a deep interest in the activities of this club and hope that it will continue to serve them in the future.

Girls' Basketball

Coached once again by Mr. Erin Moore, the girls' basketball team enjoyed one of its best seasons in recent years and finished with a 10-4 record and 3rd place in its division. Led by captains Renée Creange and Margaret Kelleher, the Blue Jays were in the state tournament in February. Heading the list of its outstanding members are departing seniors Renée and Margaret, and those who lent their support — Terry Sneyers, Nancy Anderson, Pat Quinn, Ann Contijoch and Paula Mattioli. All is not lost for next year, however, with returnees Mary Coleman and Renée Vanore.

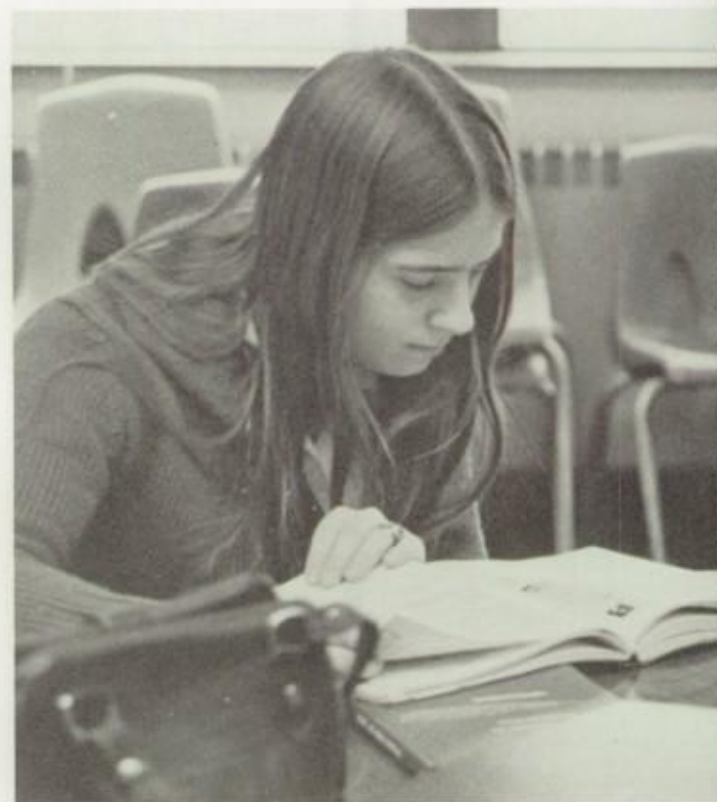

Newspaper: Moderator Mrs. Eileen Komorowski, Co-editors Debbie Spinosa and Bill Lynch.

Newspaper

The third printing of the Anthem was the responsibility of the newspaper staff headed by Bill Lynch and Debbie Spinosa. Supported by a team of experienced reporters, the group endeavored to convey through this medium the current news topics that the student body would find most interesting.

Writers Club

The Phoenix, Saint Joseph's literary magazine, is a reflection of the creative talents of the Writers Club. The publication this past year has taken on a new dimension as photography was an added technique to enhance the verse and essays of its contributors. Editor Kevin McCaffrey and Assistant Editor Mary Coda led the staff in working many hours on its new layout, guided by Mrs. Rosanne DeLuca. The entire Writers Club can indeed be proud of their latest works.

Basketball Season 1974-75

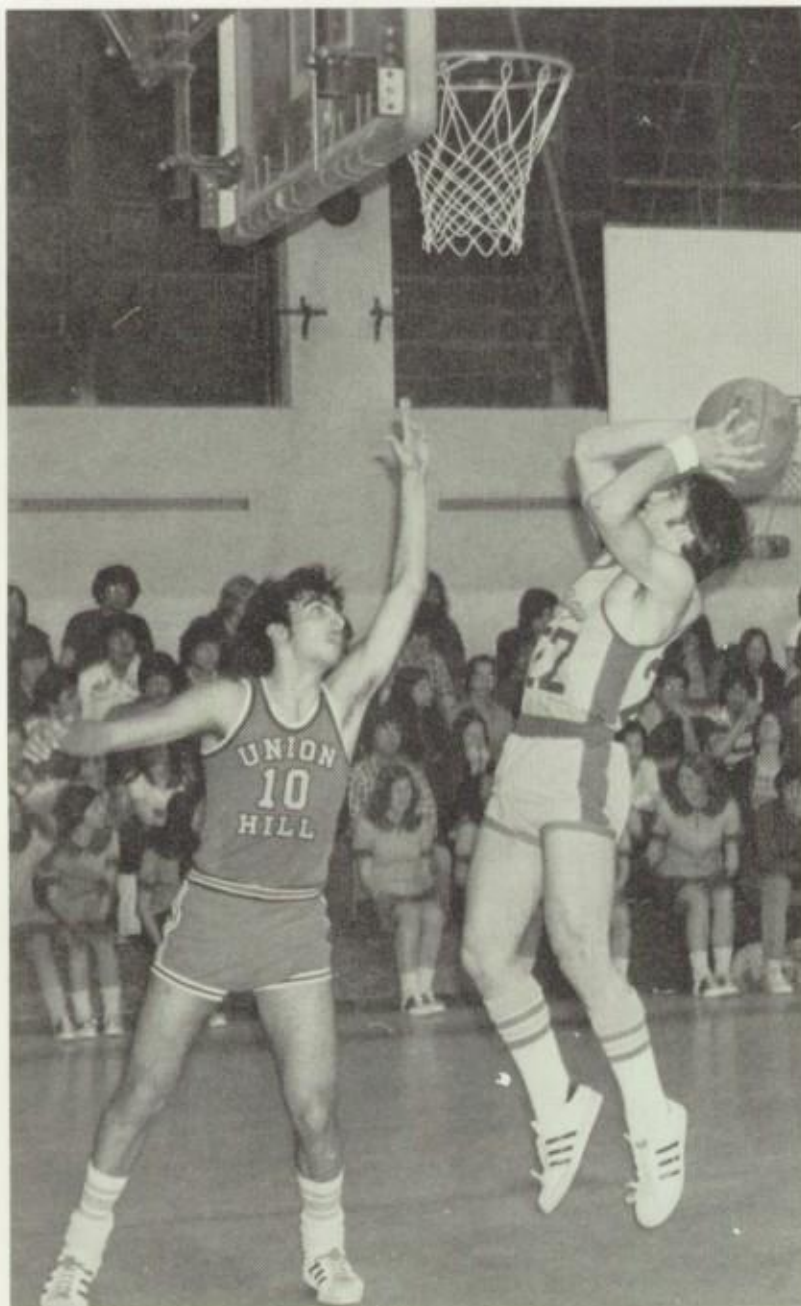

Despite many close scores with tough competitors, the varsity basketball team ended the season with a 10-15 record and participated in the state tournament in March. Rookie varsity coach Brian Karabinos was pleased with the spectacular individual performances of high scorer Jim Cirulli, top rebounder Ted Fattoross, and assist leader Tony DeSantis. The departure of these seniors which includes Richie Ryder, Bob Saraceni, and Mike Tanner will be a sad loss to the squad. However, the Bluejays will be supported by such talents as juniors Andy Amato, Gregg Carlovich and Steve Dragona.

Tony,
I purposely select this page because, as you well know, I love hypothetical situations! Actually and seriously, the entire bunch must be nice, for in my opinion as NHS Advisor, you belong in this page; and that is a statement for which you may quote me anytime you wish. I don't know if I ever told you, but there was a point when I wondered what the hell I was doing teaching you (Spanish or Life I) since it seems to me that you know quite a bit about both. Just make sure that you always know that you can count on me as your friend anytime.

Thanks for

Science & Math Clubs

Many new clubs were initiated this year by all the departments, giving the student body a wide variety from which to choose. The science faculty sponsored clubs which included the Chemistry club run by Sister Camille, the Aeronautics club inaugurated by Father Newland to teach students how to apply for a pilot's license, the Math club was designed by Ms. Judy Boyd to encourage students with interests in math puzzles and logic problems.

The motto of the Community Action Program has been to bring out the Christian spirit of involvement, typified by the Thanksgiving drive which brought 30 families in the West New York area a bountiful meal for the holidays. Mr. Tom Nervegna and Mr. Larry Bremer have organized this club to make weekly visits to senior citizens and to tutor Spanish speaking grammar school students.

Community Action

A Man For All Seasons

The 1975 theatrical season at Saint Joseph's premiered with "A Man For All Seasons," a drama by Robert Bolt. The amateur thespians of the student body seized the opportunity as a challenge to their abilities and the result was a brilliant performance by the entire cast. The story narrated by the Common Man, Marty Thaler, was the series of incidents leading to the beheading of Sir Thomas More, who opposed the divorce of King Henry the Eighth and his attempt to gain control of the Church in England. Sir Thomas was convincingly portrayed by Kevin McCaffrey and supported by Bill Lynch as Cromwell, Janet Nacca as his wife Alice, Mike Emerson as the Duke of Norfolk, and Thad Kobylarz as Richard Rich. Other superlative performances included Jon Rush as King Henry, Chris Lynch as Cardinal Woolsey, Daryl Erbach as Margaret More, Jerry Jiminez as Chapuys, John Berckes as William Roper, Mary Coda as Catherine, Mike Abbato as the Bishop of Canterbury and Erik Kobylarz as Chapuys' attendant. The cast was directed by Mr. Jack Dondero and assisted by Mr. John Phelan.

Boys Swim Team: 1st row: Coach Mike Scerbo, Carlo Salafrio, Bob Forenzo, Bruce Dmytro, Paul DelForno, Lance Mancuso, Abel Saud, Mgr. Jim Leber; 2nd row: John LaRocca, Frank Monte, Thad Kabylarz, John Elisano, Lou Petrillo, Jamie Caracappa; 3rd row: Ricky Laveglia, Dan McCarthy, Greg Kemp, Ed Shack, Mike Abbato, Jose Saud; 4th row: Brian Millard, Pete DeOteris, Arty Turkowsky, John Berckes, Bill Delany, Mark Stawicki.

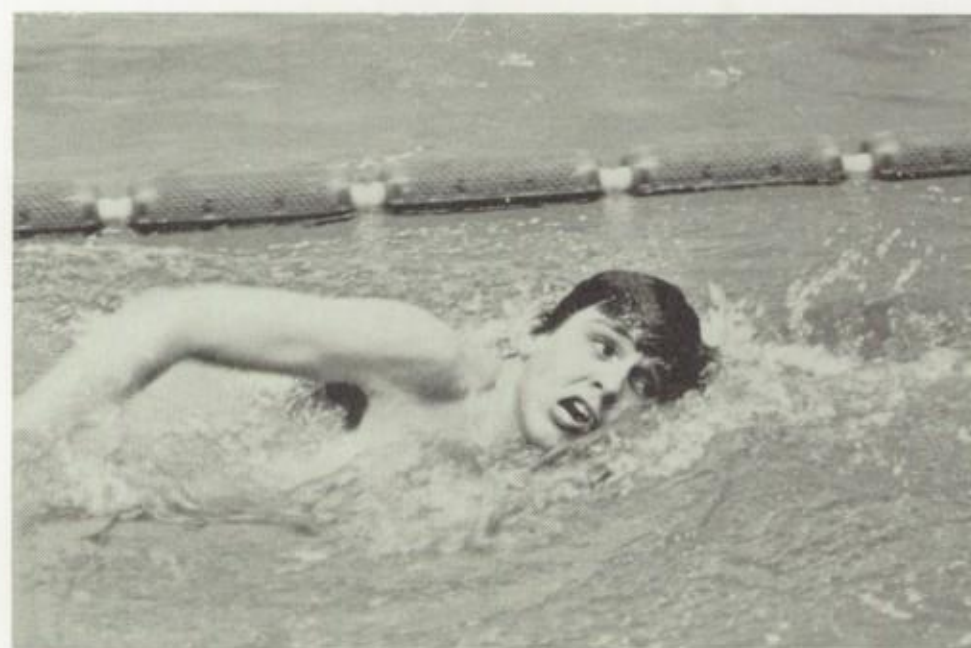

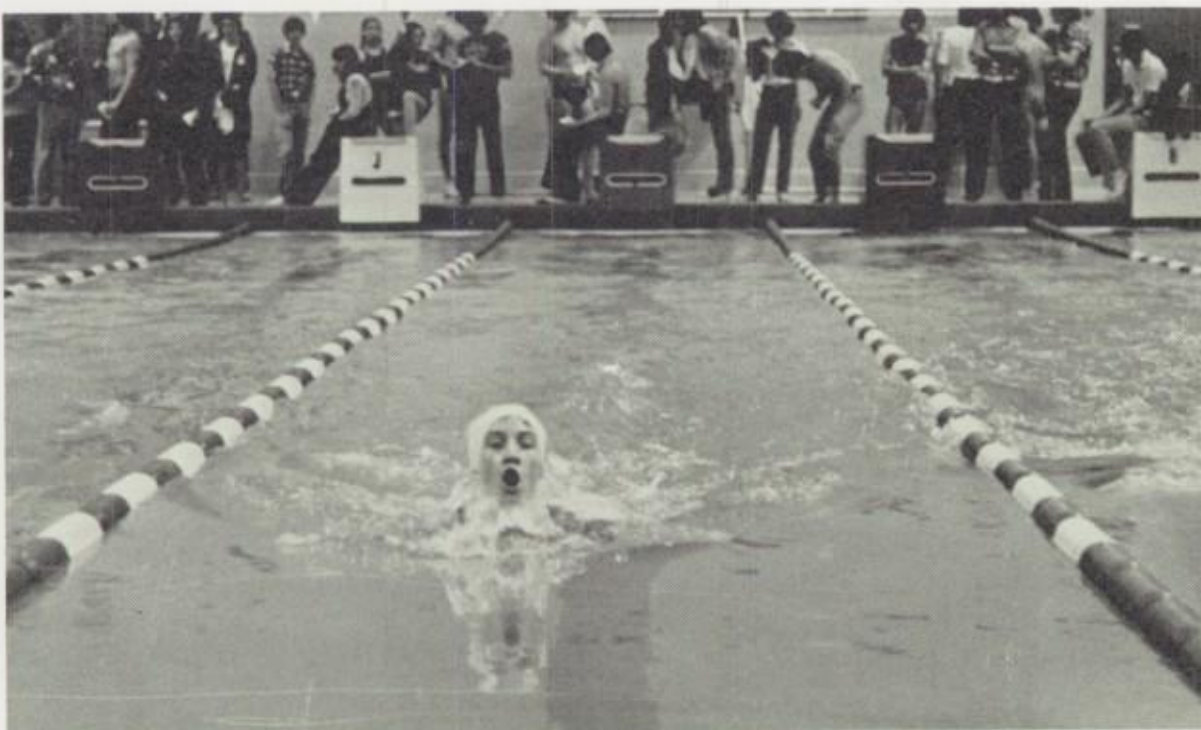

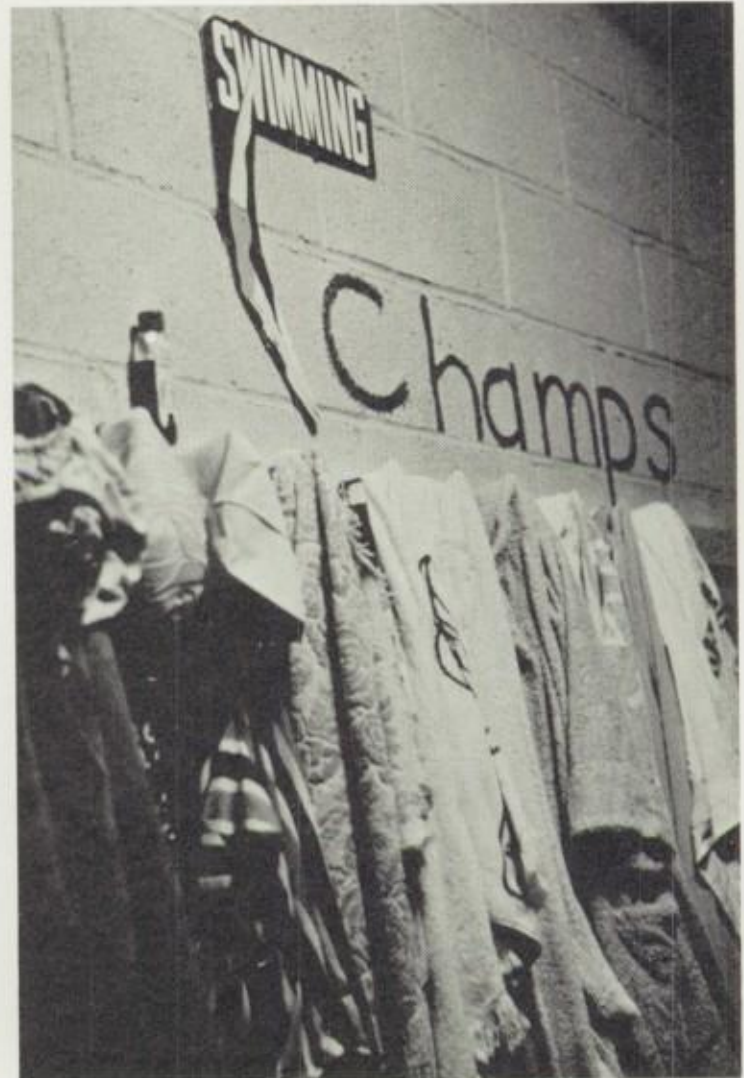

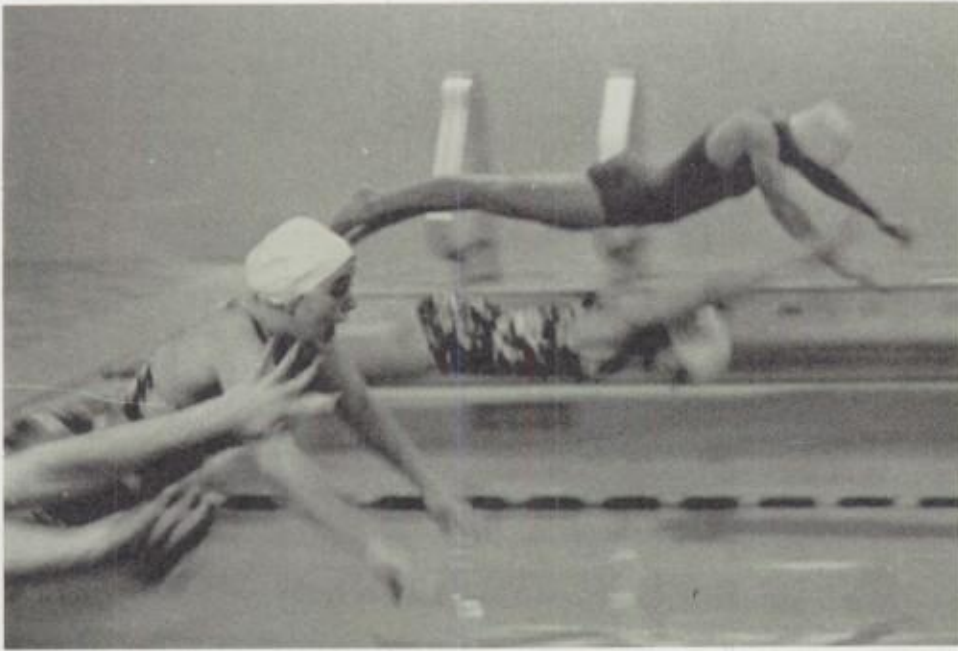

With many experienced talents and eager newcomers, coaches Jeanne Russoniello and Mike Scerbo joined their respective teams and their expectations were justified with the completion of the 1974-1975 season. The girls' team was laden with such outstanding swimmers as Captains Maggie Conway, Ginger Wengerter and Angel Zimick, all of whom hold county records. With many departing seniors, next year's team will thrive again behind the efforts of juniors Sue Behringer, Sue Wengerter, and Eileen Finneran, and also sophomore Pat Berckes. The boys' team was forced to depend on many rookie underclassmen but despite the rebuilding process they captured a third place title in the county meet inspired by senior captains Ricky Laveglia and Mark Stawicki and junior captain Marty Thaler. The Victories earned by both teams added to the increasing popularity of swimming as a spectator sport at St. Joe's.

Bicentennial Club and Intramural Council

Intramural Council: Jim Leber, Mr. John Callahan, Tony Massaro.

Chess Team

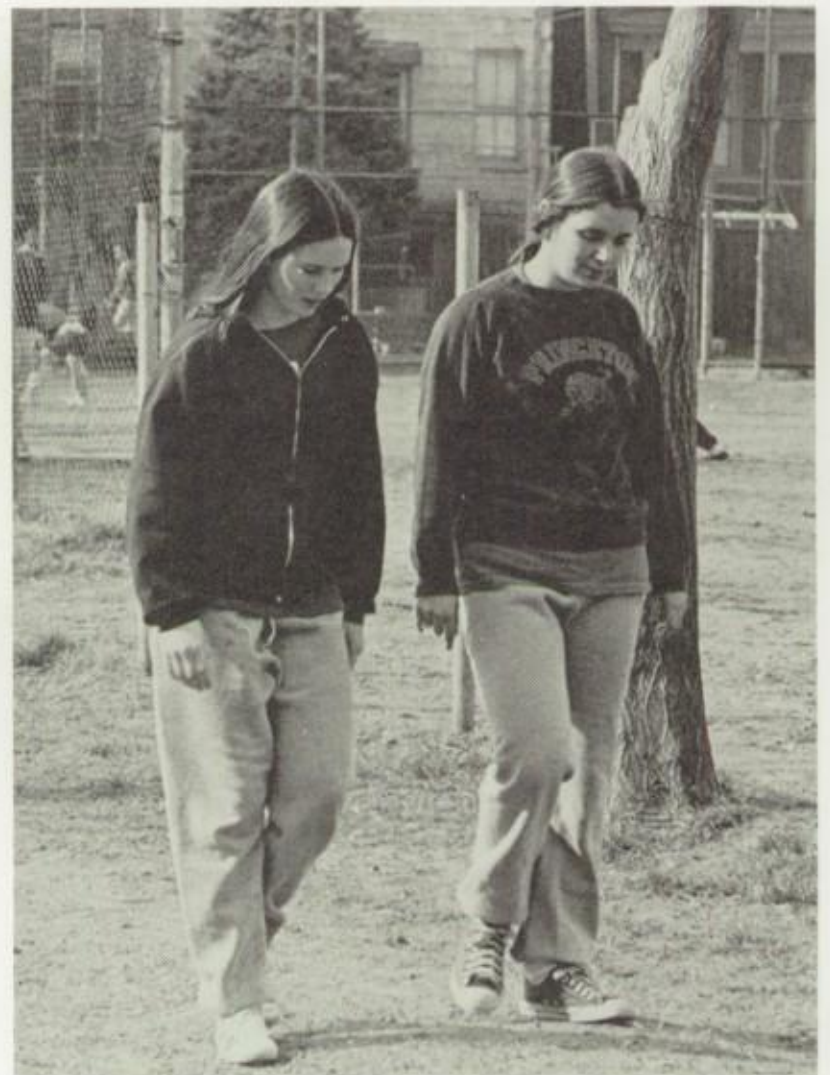

Saint Joseph's chess team is a model of dedication and hard work and this past year they enjoyed a fruitful season. Coached by Mrs. Mary Chibookian, the group used the school library for interscholastic competition, eliminating the need to employ the West New York library for its matches. The team's outstanding members include Richie Miner and senior Amato.

Over the past few seasons, outdoor track at Saint Joseph's has nurtured increased popularity with all classes of the student body. Clare Goscienski, coach of the girls' team, assembled a hardy squad of 24 speedsters, some experienced and some untried. The team was sustained by regulars Angel Zimick and Ginger Wen-gerter, and a host of future successes. The boys team, under the guidance of Angelo Agosto and Mark Ennslyn, enjoyed a schedule abundant in wins for individual stars as Tony Novembre, Captain Ed Bez, and freshman Larry Wallington.

Bowling

The boys' and girls' bowling team commenced the season with the hope that their respective past accomplishments could be equaled or bettered. The girls' team coached once again by Miss Mary McGinnin, remained in contention for the county title throughout the season and was maintained by the consistency of Jan Happell and anchor Margie Falcone. The squad attempted to repeat their championship of two years ago. Following a sixth place finish in last year's state tournament, the boys' team returned to become a threat in the early part of the season, led by Captain Steve Gallo and Co-captain Mike Ricciardi, with Miss McGinnis also doubling as their coach.

Variety Show

Through the efforts of the 1975 Variety Show cast, Saint Joseph's was taken on a "Sentimental Journey" on April 12th and its benefits were twofold — the amateur performers could ham it up for the cause of the patients at Meadowview Hospital. Moderated by Mr. Rafe Ledesma directors Anne Lee and Maryanne Walliser produced a sensational evening of big musical numbers and numerous comedy skits. The practices were often aggravating and tedious, but the final production was a satisfactory reward.

Hockey

Brother Matthew Petersen succeeded this year in organizing a hockey team for interscholastic competition. Their record in the league was hardly an indication of the time and effort that was contributed by its members, but all signs seem to project that the Bluejays on the ice are potential powerhouse in seasons ahead. The Bergen Mall in Paramus is the home arena and despite their rookie status the boys enjoy the activity sparked by Captain Bob Pisani.

Senior Prom Committee

The Senior Prom Committee, with the guidance of Mrs. Cathy Dondero, have worked hard in preparing this year's prom. Chairperson Marcia Herrera, Treasurer Joanne Jordan and the finance representatives along with any other interested Seniors have run activities such as selling hats, class shirts, running the Senior Poll dance and raffles. On May 22nd, at the Tamcrest Country Club, all their efforts proved successful with St. Joseph's 1975 Senior Prom.

Junior Activities Committee

The leadership of the Junior class has been reorganized under the auspices of Mr. Rafael Ledesma to make the students aware of the affairs that will concern the class for the entire year. Traditionally, the Junior Activities Committee has sponsored fund-raising ventures to finance the ring ceremony and the dinner dance, and this year's car wash which is the greatest moneymaker, was the most successful ever, producing over $600.00. These achievements reflect the efforts of Chairperson Karen Misa, Treasurer Ray Menendez, and Secretary John Andre. Another new development of this committee has been the Junior Information Committee, which seeks to enlighten the Juniors on their role in the school. Led by Class President Marty Thaler, this faction reports to the Juniors at meetings in their specific areas: Denise Daub, academics; Billy Valentine, spiritual development; Kenny Tanner, athletic development; Karen Misa, social areas; and Jeanne Maloney, Student Council. With this cooperation, the Class of '76 are destined to a great senior year at Saint Joseph's.

Faculty Follies

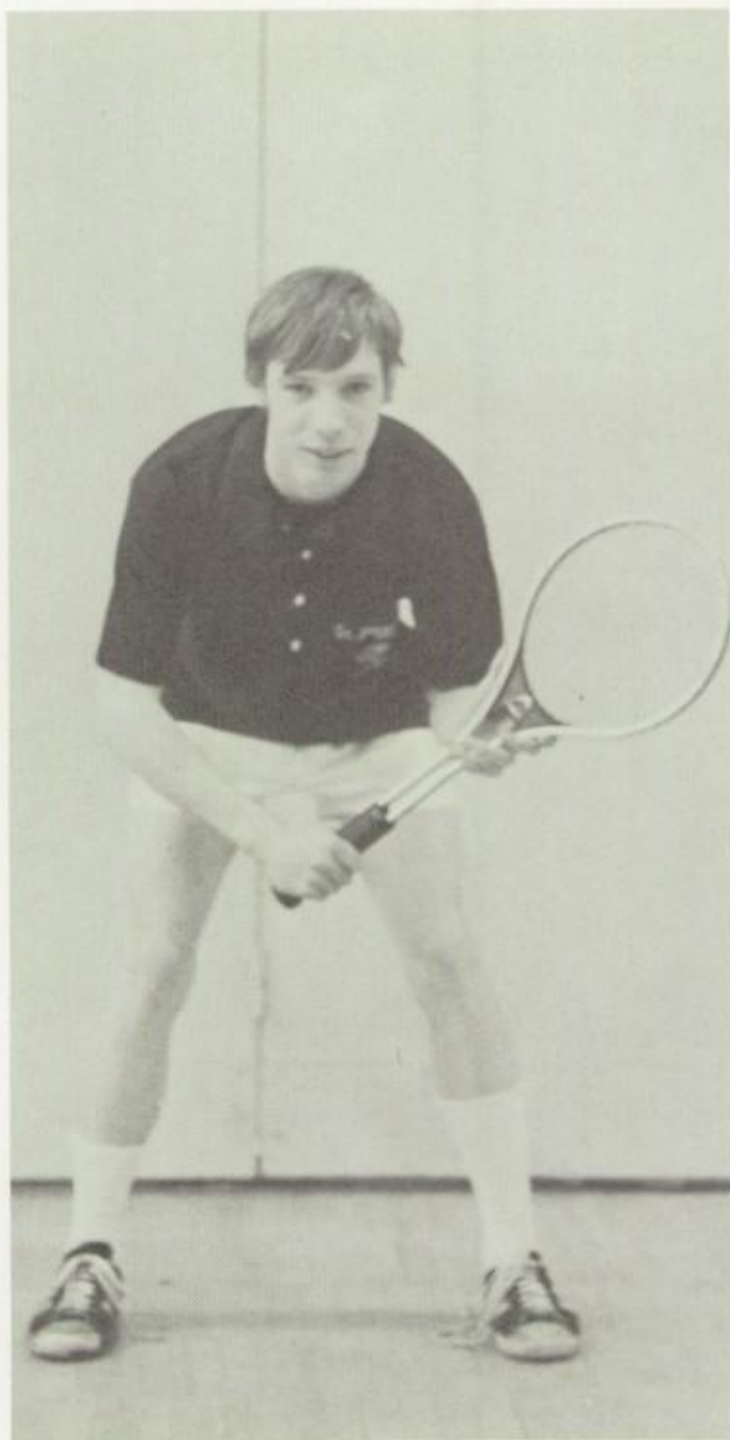

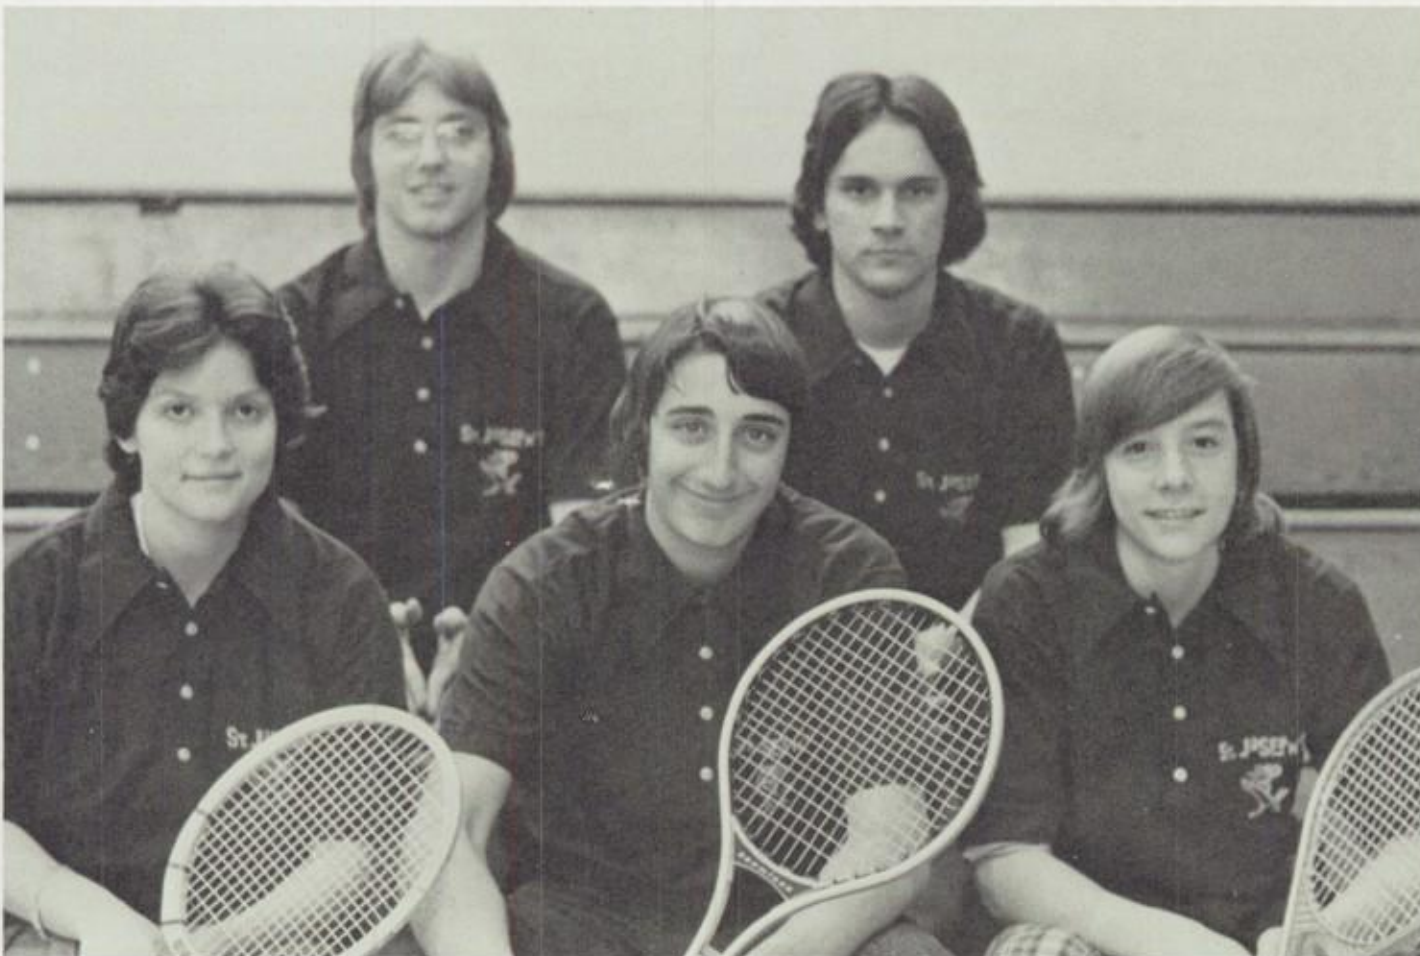

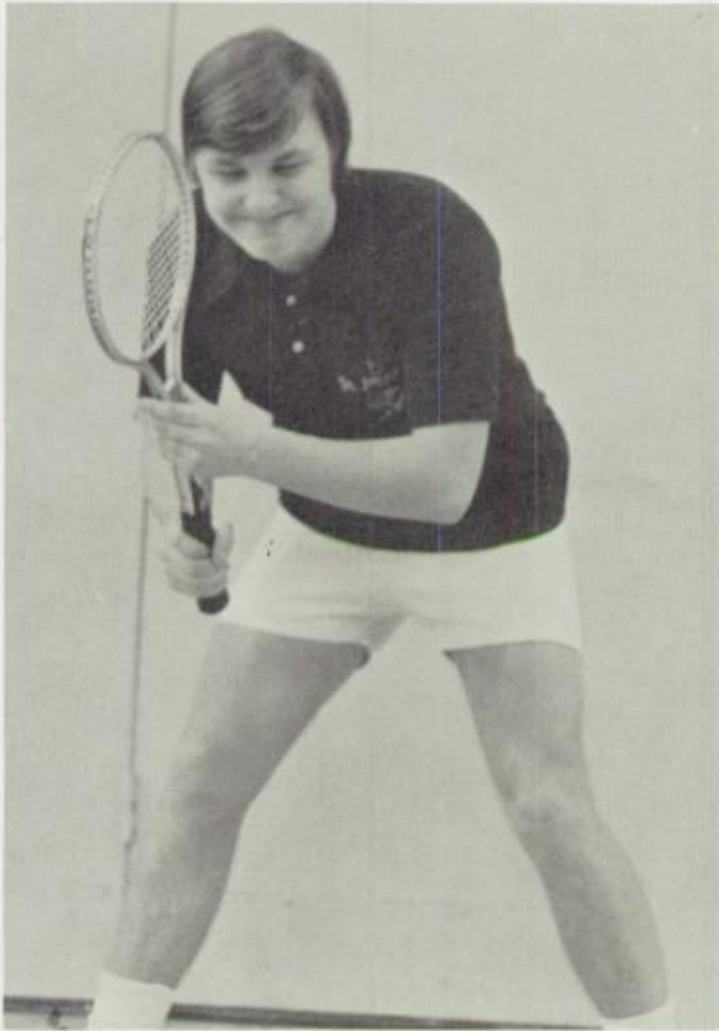

Music Club

The Music Club was instituted this year as part of the "F" Day program. Mrs. Iris Jimenez and Mr. Rafael Ledesma are the moderators. The purpose of the club is to allow the students to develop their musical tastes and talents. Dom Menge is one of the better guitar players with Dan Pellicano on bass. Maryanne Masucci and Mrs. Jimenez herself tickle the ivories while Lou Sasparini plays heavy guitar. All in all the group can be heard making music and other sounds into the wee hours of many an F Day. We hope eventually they will entertain the whole student body and provide us with performances to look forward to.

Yearbook

The intention of the 1975 yearbook staff was to record the events of the past year at Saint Joseph's and to magnify the influence of these events on our daily lives. We hope that this book will conjure up fond memories of pleasurable occasions in the minds of those who will reflect on the accomplishments of our class. The reward for our long hours of work on this publication is the pride with which the student body will look back and reminisce in the times to come.

Dear Bapda,
 Of all the people I have come to know through the yearbook, I shall treasure your friendship the most because of the entire staff, you came the closest to sharing my enthusiasm and dedication. You were so very tolerant of all my talking and I think you know that I appreciated every ounce of sweat you poured into this yearbook. Anything I ever said I forgot the next instant, so don't interpret my anger as ungratefulness. I'll keep you dear in my memory, and my fondest thoughts of yearbook will be your sprawling carcass on these broken, gutted desks. Thank you for your assistance and understanding. Love,
 Jeff
